

Meeami Technologies to Discuss AI, Chatbots & Virtual Assistants

COO Doug Makishima will discuss Voice IoT, AI and Virtual Assistants at this week's Mobile World Congress (MWC)

Shanghai, China (MWC Shanghai 2017) and Santa Clara, CA – June 26, 2017 -- Meeami Tech, the leader in IP Communications and voice IoT, today announced that chief operating officer Doug Makishima will participate in "AI, Chatbot & Virtual Assistant" a panel presentation offered at the Future Tech Summit being held at MWC Shanghai on Friday, June 30, 2017 in Hall W3 of the Shanghai New International Exhibition Center.

The Future Tech Summit will bring together the global leaders of innovation, technology and business, futurists, scientists and pioneers to decode the future of global trends and technologies. During the presentation, Makishima and other key industry leaders will discuss how tech innovation in AI, Chatbots & Virtual Assistants will change our lives and impact business over the coming decades.

Joining Doug on the panel are Balagopal Ramdurai, AVP Products & Innovations, ZSL Inc.; Omar Javaid, Chief Product Officer, Vonage; Diego Cibils, CEO, KONA. Dan Kara, ABI Research Director, will moderate the discussion.

About Meeami Technologies

Meeami Technologies, a spin-off of the former media processing and real-time communications group of Imagination Technologies, is the recognized leader in IP Communications and Voice IoT technology platforms for voice, video and messaging applications. To see how Meeami is helping top-tier OEM, IC and carrier customers, with embedded software, mobile apps and end-to-end communications solutions, see www.meeamitech.com.

Contact

*Doug Makishima
Chief Operating Officer
Meeami Technologies*

Tel: +1.925.271.5820

Email: doug@meeamitech.com